Get Your Kids to Listen

(and want to do the things you ask!)

Do you want to?

- Stop nagging your kids and have a more positive way of communicating:
- Help your children have a positive outlook on life:
- Build better relationships with your kids, reduce arguments and have fun with them:
- Help your children (and you!) to resolve internal and external conflicts:
- Help your children understand how to set goals and motivate them to achieve?

Paul Cassidy and Georgina Clarke are parenting experts from NLP4Parents. They offer workshops which show parents techniques to improve relationships with their kids and teach effective parenting techniques, based on NLP (Neuro-Linguistic Programming).

Workshops will be fun, interactive, non-judgemental and will Help you to enhance the great job you already do!

We will be doing 2-hour TASTER NLP sessions to introduce you to NLP and some of the techniques that you can use with your kids.

Tuesday 26th June 2012 – 7pm until 9pm – Finchampstead Baptist Centre, Gorse Ride North, Finchampstead

Saturday 30th June 2012 10am until 12pm – ARC Youth Counselling Centre, Reading Road, Wokingham (next to Youth Centre)

Wednesday 4th July 2012 10am until 12pm – ARC Youth Counselling Centre

Friday 27th July 2012 10am until 12pm – ARC Youth Counselling Centre

Monday 20th August 2012 7pm until 9pm – Crescent Resource Centre, Earley

Wednesday 19th September 2012 10am until 12pm – ARC Youth Counselling Centre

The course will include techniques to build your child's confidence, improve your own communication skills in talking to your children, and help you to build your own confidence as a parent (and a person!) as you can use the techniques with your children and yourself!

Courses cost £30 for the 2 hour session and you will receive NLP4Parent manuals.
